Members are reminded that they can submit resolutions directly to UBCM until June 15. Any resolution submitted after June 15 will be considered a Late Resolution. Late Resolutions will only be sent for debate at Convention if the topic is considered new, emergency, and not known as of the June 15 deadline. For more, refer to the Resolutions Process.

At this time of year, resolutions from all five area associations and individual members are coming to UBCM in a hailstorm. As we prepare for these resolutions to be considered at the 2025 UBCM Convention, we wanted to take an opportunity to talk about what happens before and after the Convention, in particular how UBCM deals with the Province's responses to resolutions endorsed by the membership.
